"Chozen"

(to the tune of Frozen, and Snowman)

The Nile ran fast through the desert that night
But the water, it was red
The kingdom was full of locusts,
With frogs jumping in their beds
The Jews were slaving, building Ramses and Pithom
Moses said, "it's time to say, shalom"

Pharaoh said "no, don't set them free"
He was a bad guy who brought us misery
But God's strong hand began to show
And thus said Mo:

Let them go, let them go,
Or He'll plague Egypt some more
Let them go, Pharaoh,
Say the word and we're out the door

This nightmare
Needs to end today
Let our tribe march on
We won't let the waters stand in our way

Do you want some afikoman?
It's just unleavened bread
Those four questions that I asked before,
I have one more:
Can I have cake instead?

We once were slaves in Egypt
And now we're not
So that's why we don't eat rye
Do you want some afikoman?
You can feel free to say no, man
How 'bout brei?

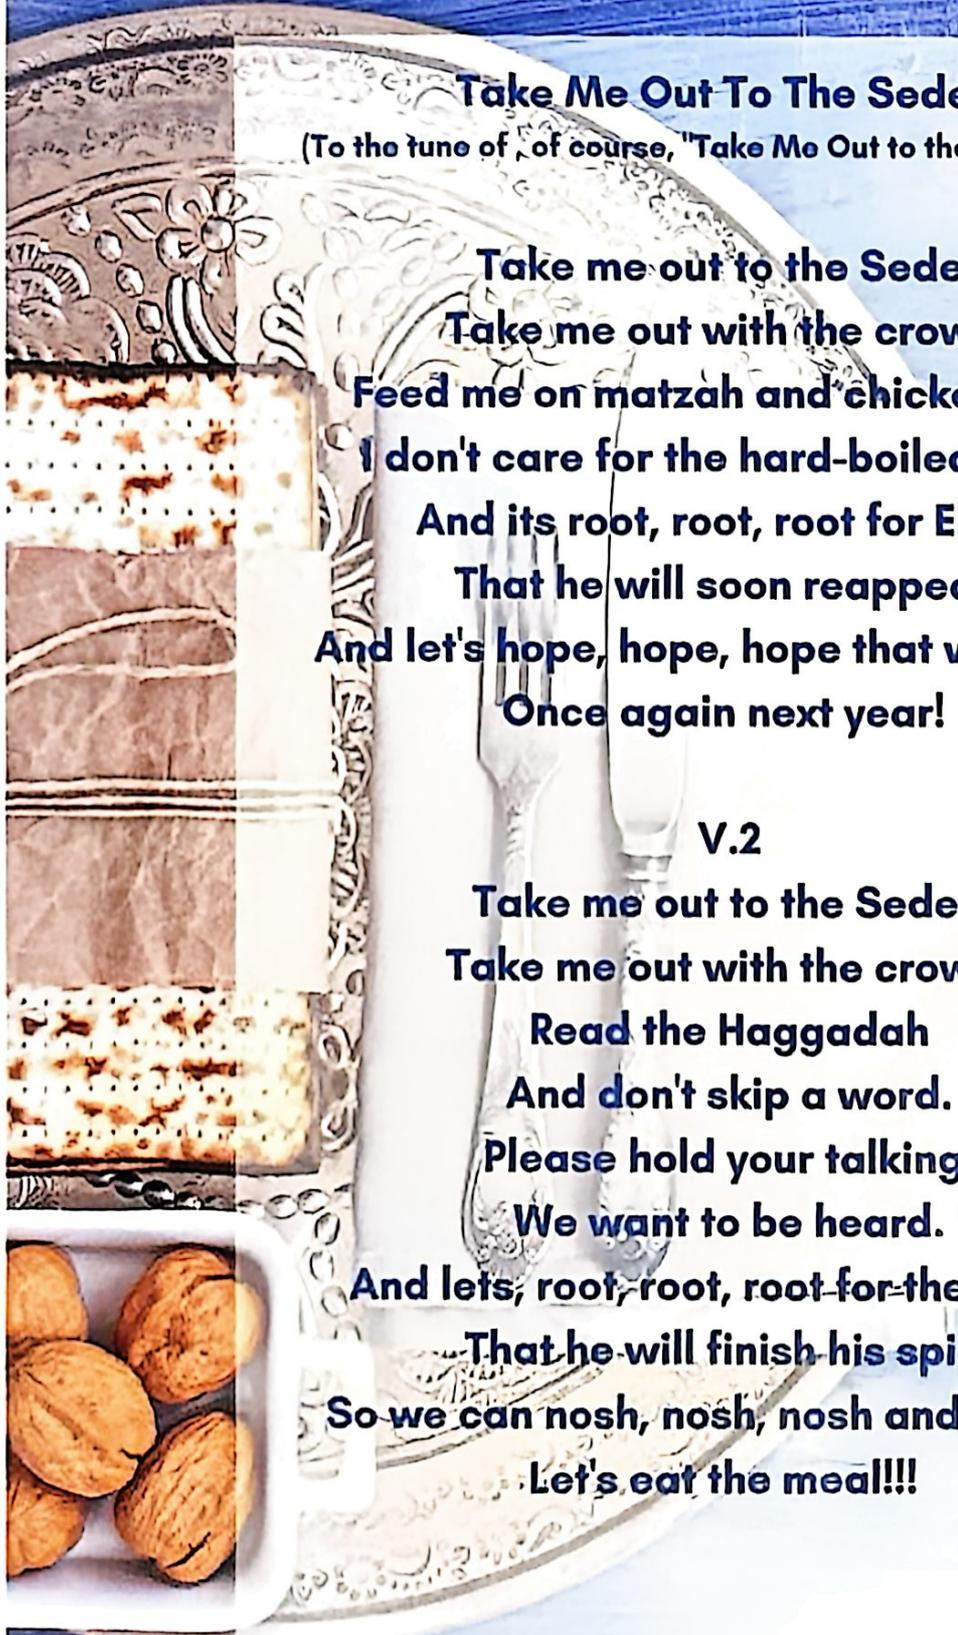

God took us out, and dayenu
When we got to the sea, we walked right through
There was no time for bread to rise
Goodbye!

Let us go, God let us go
We were gone before the dawn
Let us go, Pharaoh
Changed his mind, but we were gone

Here we stand,
On this holiday
Bring the seder on,
Our freedom endures to this very day

Take Me Out To The Seder

(To the tune of, of course, "Take Me Out to the Ballgame!")

A large, ornate silver Seder plate is the central focus. It contains several items: a stack of matzah (unleavened bread) on the left, a piece of chicken on the right, and a hard-boiled egg in the center. A white plastic fork and knife are placed vertically in the middle of the plate. The background is a blue, textured surface.

Take me out to the Seder
Take me out with the crowd.
Feed me on matzah and chicken legs,
I don't care for the hard-boiled eggs.
And its root, root, root for Elijah
That he will soon reappear.
And let's hope, hope, hope that we'll meet
Once again next year!

V.2

Take me out to the Seder
Take me out with the crowd.
Read the Haggadah
And don't skip a word.
Please hold your talking,
We want to be heard.
And lets, root, root, root for the leader
That he will finish his spiel
So we can nosh, nosh, nosh and by-god!
Let's eat the meal!!!
