

Instructions: Each member of your Seder should pick one personality to portray at their corresponding Seder part. They can act it out, or role play or describe the personality as it relates to the Seder.

1. Kadesh: The Sanctifier: Distinguishes between the holy and the mundane.
2. U'rchatz: The Cleaner: Cleanses the mind, body and heart of clutter and distractions in life.
3. Karpas: The Dipper: Dips and sublimates the material (vegetable) in the saltwater/tears that come from remembering a more spiritual state.
4. Yachatz: The Breaker: Breaks his subjective self to see a broader perspective.
5. Maggid: The Storyteller: Relates the story of life, in dialogue form.
6. Rachtzah: The Washer: Submerges the mind, body and soul, as a prelude to the next steps.
7. Motzi: The Earthy One: Blesses and recognizes that even things earthy (bread) are heavenly.
8. Matzah: The Selfless One: Does not allow the ego (dough) to rise and always remains selfless.
9. Maror: The Empathizer: Feels another's bitterness and pain.
10. Korech: The Binder: Sandwiches selflessness and empathy (steps 8-9) into one experience called life.
11. Shulchan Orech: The Implementer: Sets the table and ensures that that we have all the tools to eat the "meal" of life.
12. Tzafun: The Knower of Secrets: Reveals that which is hidden □ the unconscious.
13. Beirach: The Gracious One: Blesses and acknowledges life's gifts.
14. Hallel: The Praiser: Sings praise and places complete trust in G-d's hands.
15. Nirtzah: The Acceptor: Not action □ but complete surrender to being accepted and received by G-d.

SIDER FUN

